

Rockbrook United Methodist Church

Job title	Organist/Accompanist
Salary position	10-12 hours/week
Reports to	Senior Pastor

Job purpose

In collaboration with the Ministry Team and Worship Committee the Organist will select music and play organ/piano for the weekly services and coordinate accompaniment for choirs.

Duties and responsibilities

- Collaborate with the Senior Pastor, choir director, and other special groups to provide for the total music program of the church.
- Play organ/piano at weekly worship services to include service music (prelude, offertory, postlude and other appropriate music depending on the nature of the service) and hymns.
- Accompany the chancel choir at weekly rehearsals and worship services.
- Play for additional services such as Christmas Eve, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Special Music services and/or concerts.
- Arrange for substitutes for Sundays off and/or absences due to illness.
- Ensure that the organ and piano are tuned periodically and/or when needed.
- Provide information for service bulletins and write articles for newsletter as needed.
- Participate in Ministry Team meetings.
- Play for all weddings unless another acceptable organist is granted permission by our organist and senior pastor. The fee is set by the Wedding Procedures of the church.
- Play for funerals unless circumstances prevent them from doing so, in which case they would be asked to help secure the services of someone else.
- Other duties as requested by the Pastor, Ministry Team or Worship Committee.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in music.
- Equivalent church organist experience will be considered.
- Applicant will submit a resume and will be required to complete and a performance audition which include a church service.
- Applicant will demonstrate a commitment to advancing the Gospel through music
