Instruments, old and new

Geo. Jardine & Son, 1863 | Casavant Frères, Op. 3762, 1998 | Skinner Organ Company, Op. 371, 1922 | Walter Holtkamp, 1961 | Johnson & Son, Op. 479, 1877 | Wicks Organ Co., Op. 3047, 1949 | C. B. Fisk, Op. 78, 1979 | Aeolian-Skinner, Op. 1398, 1959

For those arriving on Aug. 5, enjoy a tour of the historic Mabel Tainter Arts Center, then a silent film accompanied by the 1926 Rudolf Wurlitzer at the Phipps Center for the Arts. And if you're able to stay one more morning, Aug. 12, there is a free addition to the schedule: visit Northrop Auditorium to learn about and hear the Aeolian-Skinner, Op. 892.

The Twin Cities are home to a host of fine dining restaurants, shopping centers, parks, and hiking trails, along with 72 miles of public riverfront. Enjoy this opportunity to catch up with colleagues and friends, connect with today's performers, and explore two beautiful cities between conference events.

For more information and a detailed schedule, visit our conference webpage. To register, click HERE. Space is limited, so we encourage you to register soon. We look forward to seeing you in the Twin Cities!
